Bill Geerhart

Dear Bill Geerhart:

Subject: Interagency Security Classification Appeals Panel decision on the appeal filed by Bill Geerhart

Please be advised that the Interagency Security Classification Appeals Panel (ISCAP) has concluded its consideration of the mandatory declassification review appeal number 2019-056 filed by you and that the 60-day period during which an agency head may appeal an ISCAP decision to the President has expired. Enclosed is a copy of the release and a chart that outlines the ISCAP decision. With the exception of any information that is otherwise authorized and warranted for withholding under applicable law, we are releasing all information declassified by the ISCAP to you. If you have any questions, please contact Kate Aras or me. Our telephone number at the Information Security Oversight Office is (202) .

Sincerely,

MICHAEL D. THOMAS
Executive Secretary

10. Remarks

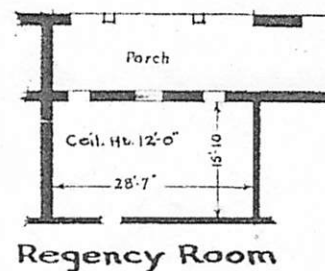

This hotel is, in effect, a complete town in itself. It contains its own telephone system with a 4-place board; toll calls are placed through the Clifton Forge-Waynesboro Telephone Co. plant (an independent company) at Covington, Va. The lines between Hot Springs and Covington are owned by the C & P Tel. Co., Roanoke, Va. This facility could be used in conjunction with The Greenbrier Hotel at White Sulpher Springs, W. Va.; one facility for working, the other for living; the C & O Railroad runs trains to both.
